BY TELEGRAPH.

A Great Victory, yet Severe Loss.

Telegraphed expressly for the Bulletin.]

RICHMOND, April 6, 1862.

To S. Cooper, Adjutant General:

BATTLE-GROUND, SHILOH, April 6.

We this morning attacked the enemy, who was in strong position in front of Pittsburg, and after a severe battle of 10 hours—thanks be to the Almighty—we gained a complete victory, driving him from every position.

The loss on both sides is heavy, including the loss of the Commander-in-Chief, Gen. A. S. Johnston, who fell gallantly leading his troops into the thickest of the fight.

[Signed] G. T. BEAUREGARD,
Gen. Commanding.

The above official dispatch was received this morning at headquarters.

GREENE.

Another Fight in Missouri.

The Southern Confederacy, of the 6th inst. contains the following private dispatch:

CHATTANOOGA, April 3, 1862.

E. M. Bruce & Co.: The New York Herald says that Gen. Price has had another fight in Missouri, and whipped the Federals worse than in any fight yet. Siegel's army has retreated seventy-five miles in great disorder.

The Kentucky troops in Lincolndom are rebelling. Two Indiana regiments were called out to take them to the guard house, when they were fired upon and 400 killed. All reliable. A. J. ARMSTRONG.

Confederate States of America.

WAR DEP'T, ORDNANCE OFFICE,
RICHMOND, March 3, 1862.

Bids will be received at this office until the 15th day of April next, for the following Ordnance and Ordnance material for the Confederate States army:

200,000 tons charcoal cold blast Pig Iron,
50,000 tons of Blooms, (charcoal,)
50,000 tons Wrought Iron Bars of various sizes,
100 10-inch Columbiads,
100 8-inch Columbiads,
100 10-inch Siege and Garrison Mortars,
100 13-inch Sea-coast Mortars,
500 12-pounder Iron Howitzers,
500 6-pounder Iron Field Guns.

Bids may be made for any quantity of iron over one hundred tons, and for any number of guns over ten.

Drawings of the guns will be furnished only to parties whose bids are accepted.

Bidders will state the points of delivery, and the date at which not less than one hundred tons of iron may be expected to be furnished.

They must also state the time required to furnish the whole of their bid.

Bidders for guns will state the date of the first delivery, and the time required to supply the whole number.

Payments will be made on delivery of not less than fifty tons of iron, and the right to pay one-half in Confederate bonds is reserved.

Bids must be sealed and enclosed, and endorsed on the envelope "Proposals for Iron," or "Proposals for Guns," as the case may be. J. GORGAS, Lt. Col,
Chief of Ordnance.

Executive Department of North Carolina.

ADJUTANT GEN'LS. OFFICE,
Raleigh, March 22d, 1862.

GENERAL ORDER,
No. 5.

ALL NEW COMPANIES OF N. C. Volunteers must be tendered directly to the State, otherwise the bounty authorized by the ordinance of the Convention to raise North Carolina's quota of troops will not be paid to them, as the law does not allow it. The Companies so tendered will be organized into Regiments by the State, the commissioned officers of which elect their field officers. The bounty will be paid each Company as soon as possible after their arrival in Camp.

II. No organization of Regiments or Battalions will be recognized unless the same is done by authority of the State and in compliance with its laws.

III. These Troops being raised for immediate field service should have no more baggage than each man can carry in his knapsack. It is desirable that each man bring a blanket (if he can furnish it,) any additional articles must necessarily be lost if brought.

IV. All communications on Military matters must be sent to this Office. In no other way will they receive immediate attention.

By order of Governor CLARK.
J. G. MARTIN,

GEORGE A. SHIELDS, Foreman.

MANUFACTURES STEAM ENGINES of any power desired, for Mills and Plantation purposes, at short notice, having at all times on hand some finished, or in a forward state. In connection with our Mill and Engine Work, we have secured the services of Mr. JOHN CRABTREE, who is one of the best Millwrights in the South, to superintend the putting up of Mills and Engines.

CORN MILLS.

I am agent for one of the best PORTIBLE MILLS now in use, and can furnish any size wanted. Persons wishing the Mills are invited to call at the Works, and witness the operation of the one now in use. The Mill-rock, which is the very best, is procured from Edgefield, S. C., and the Mills are built complete at our Establishment.

BRASS AND IRON CASTINGS.

All descriptions of BRASS and IRON CASTINGS executed in the very best manner, and at short notice, as we cast every day in the week. Our stock of patterns is very large, having recently purchased all those formerly owned by G. W. Wright, which being added to those made at my Establishment for the past five years, makes the assortment more full than any other like establishment in the State.

Wire Railing.

I am agent for one of the largest Wire Railing Companies at the North, and will furnish WINDOW GUARDS, GALLERIES, VERANDAHS, BEDSTEADS, or any description of Wire Work, at the book prices of the manufacturer, which can be seen at my office.

CIRCULAR SAWS.

I am agent for R. Hoe & Co's celebrated CIRCULAR SAWS, and also for a manufacturer of the same article in Richmond, Va. A full supply of these SAWS, of all sizes, always on hand. Persons wishing them, will do well to call on me, as I make no charge for fitting them to the mandrels.

OLD SAWS RE-TOOTHED.

I have a GUMMING MACHINE on hand, and am prepared to re-tooth old saws, making them as good as new.

PROSPECTUS OF THE HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,

DEVOTED TO
POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS.
PUBLISHED BY DENNIS HEARTT.
HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall contiue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

PROSPECTUS OF THE STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

emi-Weekly, per annum.........................$400
Weekly...200

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion....................$100
Each subsequent insertion.....................25 cents.

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER THE TIMES;

A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro. $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. E. Edwards.

"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald

"One of the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.

"Let the people of North Carolina encourage their own newspapers."—Raleigh Standard.

When an advertisement is inserted in the Weekly, or but once a week in the Daily, 50 cents a square for each insertion.

We offer to advertisers the inducement of sending their favors to be read by a numerous and influential class of readers, both in town and country. The Southern Guardian presents great advantages as an advertising medium; its circulation is large, and is daily and rapidly extending, particularly in the middle and upper districts of the State.

JOB PRINTING.

The Job Office is thoroughly appointed in all respects, and fitted for every description of Job Work. In connection with it is a Bindery.

The Southern Guardian is devoted to the maintenance of the rights, honor and interests of the South under the Constitution. While it is willing to sustain the Democratic party whenever its course shall command approval by its justice, it yet more confidently and distinctly relies upon the people of the South; and as the best preparation for the contest which is even now upon us, it will zealously labor to effect union and co-operation amongst ourselves.

In the management of this journal, the early production of every class of news from all parts of the world, the lessons of virtue and morality, the interests of education, agriculture, commerce, and manufactures,—will be kept prominently in view, and no effort will be spared to make it, in all respects, an acceptable fire-side visitor.

☞ We send our Daily to nearly all the Weekly newspapers of the State. Will they, in consideration of this advantage, kindly give the above prospectus a few insertions. June 7

The Literary Paper of the South

"EVERY FAMILY SHOULD READ IT"

THE TIMES.

THE LARGEST! THE CHEAPEST! THE BEST! ILLUSTRATED SOUTHERN FAMILY PAPER!

THE TIMES is neither political nor sectarian, but is the constant aim of the Editors to fill its columns with the choicest Historical, Literary and Family reading, and with a large selection of all the new of the day, both foreign and domestic.

The fifth volume commences with the new year 1860. Engagements have been made to make this the most brilliant year in the history of THE TIMES. It will commence with Three Beautiful Prize Stories.

Its illustrations will be increased; and its typographical appearance will be improved by a still neater dress. The Publishers are determined to keep pace with the improvements of the age: their motto is "PROGRESSION," and as the circulation of THE TIMES enlarges each year, they are determined to add new attractions to its columns, and make it the literary paper of the South. With these inducements the Publishers confidently expect several thousand increase in circulation.

But as additional incentives to the friends of the South to encourage their own literary and family paper, in which they will find none of that impure and immoral reading which sometimes they get from abroad, the Publishers of THE TIMES offer

$2,500 IN PREMIUMS

For subscribers to commence with the new volume and the new year. THE TIMES is printed weekly on eight large pages, fine paper, at $2 a year, in advance. For specimen numbers and circulars address the Publishers.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

TRI-WEEKLY.......................................5.00

Clubs will be Furnished as follows:

Five Copies of the DAILY for....................$40.00
Five Copies of the TRI-WEEKLY...................20.00

The name of no person out of Charleston will be entered on our books, unless the payment of the subscription be made in advance. Nor will orders from without the city to publish Advertisements, Marriage Notices, or Obituaries, be attended to, unless the cash, or an acceptable City reference, accompany the order. Money may always be forwarded at our risk in registered letters.

POSTMASTERS are authorised to act as our Agents in obtaining subscribers and forwarding the money; and by sending us Five DAILY subscribers, with $50 enclosed—or Five TRI-WEEKLY subscribers, with $25 enclosed, will be entitled to ad extra copy; or if preferred, they may retain Twenty per cent. of the pre-payments, for their trouble and in lieu of the extra paper.

Out of South Carolina, no person whatever is authorised to collect debts already due to the MERCURY.

In the State Mr. SAMUEL E. BURGESS is our regular Agent to make collections and procure new business and subscriptions.

In Charleston, Mr. JAMES D. BUDDS, connected with the office, is our regular authorised collector who has full power to receipt for money now due the paper and to contract for future business.

Subscribers and others, in debt to us, are urgently requested to send in our dues by mail at the earliest period. By so doing, they will save us twenty per cent, an amount equivalent to a principal portion of the profits.

☞ EDITORS in the State and throughout the South, who receive our TRI-WEEKLY for their WEEKLY, are respectfully requested to compensate us for the difference in value by inserting this Prospectus. R. B. RHETT, JR.

GLORIOUS NEWS!

FIGHT AT CORINTH, MISS.

CONFEDERATES VICTORIOUS!!

EIGHT BATTERIES TAKEN!!!

The Federal Army to be Captured!

Telegraphed expressly for the Bulletin.]

MOBILE, April 6, 1862.

A great battle was fought above Corinth this morning.

Our soldiers attacked and fought the Federals with immense bravery and violence, and drove them back with great slaughter.

We captured eight batteries, with many prisoners.

The enemy's whole army was engaged.

Authentic information received this evening says that we shall destroy or capture the Federal force.

No further particulars have yet been received.

Notice to Merchants.

FORWARDING OFFICE
S. C. R. R. Co.
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSE OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expense, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and wharfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage.

CHARLOTTE, March 1, 1862.

More of Capt. Morgan—What the Yankees say of Him.

The following sketch of Capt John Morgan, the well known Confederate scout, we take from a letter of a Nashville correspondent of the New York Times:

The name of this mysterious marauder is on the lips of every one, for his daring coolness and disregard of fear has become a by-word even among our own army.—This Col. John Morgan—for so he styles himself—is said to be a native of Lexington, Ky., whose father was a respectable manufacturer of jeans. From his youth this Morgan has won the admiration of all who knew him for his dare-devil recklessness, which even now does not seem to have diminished in the least. We first heard of him when our brigade (the 8th) was, a portion of them, encamped at Pilot Knob, Mo., in September last. Our pickets were shot by some mysterious agency, and report stated, in camp, that a tall heavy man, with flowing beard, mounted on an immense black stallion, fleet as the wind, was several times detected in the act of retreating. Shot after shot was fired after him, but he seemed to bear a charmed life. We lost sight of him until just before we left Cairo, when he appeared one night suddenly and shot two of our pickets.—Again he appeared at Bacon Creek, Ky., and burnt the railroad bridge under M'Cook's nose, shot one of his pickets, and rode off before the army had recovered from its surprise.

You remember his bold attack upon our lines on Saturday, the 8th of March, in Mitchell's division, and again on Sunday morning, at daylight, upon McCook's camp, on the Franklin Pike. The very same Sunday, this Morgan, disguised as a countryman, and dressed in butternut colored clothes, obtained a pass from Gen. M[illegible] to dine at the City Hotel in company with our own officers, making good his escape, with perfect nonchalance. He came very near capturing Gen. Nelson one day last week. The plot was discovered in time to be frustrated, but not to catch the rogue. He has since captured the railroad train running between Louisville and Nashville at Gallatin, taking thirty bridge builders prisoners, but releasing them, as he seeks higher game. He has boasted that he will catch one of our Generals as an onset to Buckner, being Buckner's especial favorite. He has offered a reward of $1,000 to any citizen or officer who will catch him and his steed, and, strange to say, disguised, has made these bets openly before our officers, who at the time did not know him. Such is Col. John Morgan, the famous rebel scout, who, though he deserves hanging, yet wins admiring opinions from enemies as well as friends for his daring.

The Yankees at Newbern, N. C.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Journal, of the 2d, says the Yankees still continue to perpetrate their characteristic outrages at Newbern. The Journal adds:

"It would disgrace the columns of our paper and shock humanity were we to publish the description we have received from an eye witness of their seraglios. They are making war upon the dead as well as the living. From the same eye-witness, a reliable gentleman, we learn, and are authorized to say, that they are actually robbing the graves in Newbern, having savagely broken open the doors of the vaults in the cemetery, and carried off the plates of the coffins. Our information on this head is sure, direct and reliable.

"We learn from the same source that Burnside is landing a large number of wagons and artillery from his ships or lighters, which are now lying beside the wharves. The number of his troops in the town is estimated at ten thousand. He has thrown out a detachment to Deep Run, some nine miles from Newbern, on the Trent road, whence his scouts or pickets extend some nine or ten miles farther. A few nights ago these scouts, between two and three hundred, visited Mr. Merritt's, about nineteen miles from Newbern, and, while the officer in command, afterwards ascertained to be a colonel, was interrogating Mrs. Merritt whether she had seen the rebel pickets, seven members of Captain Hays' company, of the second cavalry, called out, "Here they are," fired his piece and ordered his men to charge. The charge was gallantly made and the Yankees put to flight—four of their men being wounded, the colonel and one of the men mortally. They carried off Mr. Merritt a prisoner, and afterwards returned to the house and treated Mrs. Merritt most brutally, one of the men knocking her down and otherwise maltreating her, and charging her with having betrayed them."

REPRIEVED.—In yesterday's paper we announced that John Scully and Price Lewis, two convicted spies, would be hung to-day at Camp Lee. The ropes were prepared, and to-day the gibbet rears its hideous form over what was a year ago a peaceful fair ground. But the convicts have been reprieved—whether for a week or a year is not known. Beyond official circles, nothing is known as to the cause of this change in Executive purpose. It is whispered that one or both of the men have made confessions, disclosing facts of great importance to the Government. This rumor we give for what it may be worth.

The military preparations for the execution were complete. [illegible] companies of infantry had been selected, who were to have been posted in a hollow square immediately around the gallows. To each of the hundred other companies at the encampment a post in position had been assigned.

With perfect order thus secured, the ceremony of the execution, in interest and awful solemnity, would have equalled the scene presented when the pirate Brown paid the penalty of his crimes on the heights of Charlestown.—Rich. Examiner.

☞ Those who may at any time order a change in the direction of their paper will please name the office from which the change is to be made as well as the office to which the paper is to be sent in future.

We have several letters on hand ordering changes, but cannot spare the time to go through an examination of some four thousand names in order to learn the post office.

The News.

Highly important news will be found in our issue this morning.

Col. Ashby and his brave command are doing good service in Virginia.

Our noble army on the Peninsular, under command of Gen. Magruder, are no doubt actively engaged and will win imperishable glory for themselves and honor for their arms.

The news from Mobile is startling. Important news may be momentarily received from that quarter.

The news from Island No. 10 is encouraging.

The armies under Gens. Johnston, Polk and Beauregard, in the neighborhood of Corinth will soon dispute with Buell his advance, and we are confident our arms will triumph in that quarter.

The European news is highly important. The storm cloud is gathering and ere long will burst upon this Continent. Europe will soon be embroiled in American complications.

From Memphis.

We take the following items from the Memphis Avalanche of the 1st inst:

"JACKSONPORT, ARKANSAS.—We have nothing late from this military post. We may soon expect to hear of decisive movements in the West. Gen. Jeff Thompson has gone to his command west of the Mississippi river, and soon the Federals may expect him in their front, centre and rear. Celerity will mark his movements west of the Mississippi; all the spades, picks and axes have been kept for West Point operations east of the 'Father of waters.'"

The Spirit of the Planters.

At a large meeting of the planters of Bartow (late Cass) county, Georgia, the [illegible] unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That as our success in the great struggle for liberty depends upon our ability to supply our army and people with provisions, and as corn is the great basis for such supplies, we mutually pledge ourselves to plant to the entire exclusion of cotton, nothing but corn and edibles.

Resolved, That it is the sentiment of this meeting that no man who is a friend to our country will knowingly sell any flour, corn, meat, or any necessaries of life, to be shipped beyond the limits of the country, except such as may be necessary for the army, until it is ascertained that our country is fully supplied.

Railroad Arrangements.

The Wilmington Journal says:

"We are authorized to state that at a recent informal meeting of the representatives of different railroads in this State and in Virginia, it was agreed to keep constantly under the control of Gen. Holmes, at Goldsboro', an amount of rolling stock and motive power to enable him to throw ten thousand men into Wilmington within ten hours. This statement is made in order to reassure our people who might be inclined to have some misgivings at not seeing the troops actually present on the ground."

GENERAL JEFF. THOMPSON.—We learn from a Memphis letter that Gen. Thompson's force is stationed on the plank-road leading from New Madrid out to Crowley's ridge. This road presents the only route by which the enemy can advance down the river by land, and this he says they cannot and shall not do. For the present they are water-bound. The river is nearly up to high-water mark, and is again rising slowly. In June it generally attains its greatest height. He thinks, therefore, that it will be impossible for the enemy to make any headway down the west bank before July.

Gen. Thompson's force is composed entirely of swamp men, who are familiar with every bayou, lake and swamp from Cairo to Helena. They think nothing of wading and riding through the water for miles at a time, and their horses can be relied on to swim as long and venture as far as the hippopotamus of the Nile.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVALS.—The Tallahassee Floridian of the 29th says:

During the past week five of old Abe's men belonging to Com. Dupont's fleet have arrived in Tallahassee and taken lodgings in the Leon jail. These men were escorted here by a Confederate guard.—Two of them were captured by some of Capt. Pickett's men, and the other three by men from different companies, under the command of Lieut. Strange, who we regret to say was mortally wounded. In the latter capture four white men of the enemy were killed, and a contraband captured.

P. S.—Passengers by yesterday's train report that Lieut. Strange died at Lake City on Wednesday.

THE BLOCKADE.—Lord Campbell, who took exception to the efficiency of the blockade in a recent debate in the English Parliament, is a veteran politician, and has not been in a minority for thirty years. He has been Lord Chancellor, and is now Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench. He has doubtless surveyed his ground well; and if he has taken a decided stand against the blockade, he knows his ability to maintain his position. He may have been chosen by the opposition to begin the great contest in Parliament, which a Northern letter writer predicted as imminent. If the Derby party is united, with such an ally from the old Liberal party, the issue of the contest is not doubtful.

GOV. BROWN AND THE COTTON PLANTERS.—It is understood that some of our planters are so greedy for gain that they are preparing to plant large crops of cotton, when every man of sense knows that the salvation of the country depends upon the next grain crop. We are authorized to say that Governor Brown intends to recommend the Legislature at its next session to pass a law imposing a tax of $25 per bag upon every bag of cotton made in the State beyond what each citizen needs for his own immediate use. If our planters will hazard all upon a cotton crop, they should be made to pay the whole tax of the State, and their lands and negroes should be sold, if necessary, to pay the tax. They would do well to reflect before they go further. The Governor is determined to press the passage of the law, and public sentiment will require the Legislature to do it. Look out, gentlemen, the crop will be an expensive one to you. Corn will pay much better.

[Milledgeville Union.

OUR SMALL SUCCESSES.—The late capture of a number of Yankees in South Carolina, and on our own coast, has had a stimulating influence upon our people. It has convinced them that the enemy is no where irresistible. To think him so is to make him so. There has been too much of this sort of languishing philosophy. Unless cast aside, it will sap our moral strength. Let us cease talking about the enemy's vastly superior numbers and inexhaustible resources. If the result of the war depends upon a question of numeration, we are already conquered. We might as well disband our armies, and think no more of war ships and gunboats. But the Greeks of old reasoned upon different principles when invaded by Xerxes. He had resources inexhaustible; he had squadrons gigantic; he had an army that was countless. Yet these could not save his ships from destruction at Salamis, or his pomp of military power from vanishing in the wind along with the shouts of liberated Greece at Platea.—Savannah News.

The New Orleans Delta is of opinion that a week or two may tell a tale from the Mississippi river that will at once dismay the enemy and fill our people with agreeable surprise. But, (it says,) laying aside flattering expectation, it is not too much to say that the Mississippi Valley is safe if adequately defended in the Mississippi river. We must command that, or have no assurance of safety. We must have an effective fleet of gunboats upon it, or have no assurance of commanding it. It is the path of danger or the path of safety, accordingly as we use it or neglect it. It will serve us or serve the enemy. [illegible] by the army of the enemy, unassisted by gunboats and river transportation. He would not dare, even if the way were open, to move an army southward from Tennessee, and leave the Mississippi river above in our possession. To make good his invasion, he must take possession of the river as he advances.—Savannah News.

WHEAT PROSPECTS.—The growing wheat crop, says the Greenville (Tenn.) Banner, at present is more promising than we recollect of ever seeing before at this season of the year. It is well set and the fields showing quite green.

We learn from a friend who lives in Cherokee, and has lately traveled all through that section, that wheat looks remarkably well all through it, though not so forward as with us, and that a large breadth of land has been put in small grain. He remarked that there was a plenty of corn still there, but held at one dollar per bushel.

Wheat and other small grain also at present promises to do well through Middle Georgia.—Milledgeville Recorder.

WIT WORTH PRESERVING.—The committee appointed to collect metal for cannon for Gen. Beauregard's army, applied to a planter of Adams county, Miss., a few days since for his bell. Not having such an article, he mentioned it to his wife, when she very patriotically offered her brass kettle. The little ones rather demurred to the sacrifice, and one of them with a sweet tooth said: "La, pa, what will we do for preserves?" "My daughter," said the wag of a father, "our whole duty now is to preserve our country." The kettle was sent.

OATH OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE UNITED STATES.—The Federal military authorities are ruling with a high hand at Clarksville, Tennessee. The following is the oath which the citizens are required to take:

I solemnly swear that I will bear true allegiance to the United States, and support and sustain the Constitution and laws thereof; that I will maintain the national sovereignty paramount to that of all State, county or Confederate powers; that I will discourage, discountenance and forever oppose secession, rebellion and disintegration of the Federal Union; that I will disclaim and denounce all faith and fellowship with the so-called Confederate States and Confederate armies, and pledge my property and my life to the sacred performance of this my solemn oath of allegiance to the government of the United States of America.

Citizens who have not taken the oath proving their allegiance to the United States are not allowed to carry fire-arms or concealed weapons, and such weapons must be delivered up. All are ordered to refrain from assembling in unusual numbers on the streets or elsewhere, and directed to be within their houses at retreat. (9 o'clock.) Other [illegible] restrictions upon personal liberty are imposed and the whole published. It is thus that our would-be masters wish to rule, and such are the oppressive measures that should and will cause a hitherto free people to resist to the last.—Memphis Appeal.

Interesting from the North.

We have some interesting news from the North, through a gentleman who has just arrived here direct from New York City, having "run the blockade" by making his way through the enemy's lines in the neighbourhood of Winchester, in the confusion following the late battle.

In the North the effects of the war, we are told, were everywhere visible. In the great commercial metropolis of New York business was almost entirely suspended, and many of the largest mercantile houses had been forced to close. Every department of trade was paralyzed, and the papers even told of the depression of business. "For sale" and "To let" met the eye at every step, or some other evidence of the fast failing fortune of the North. The splendid "marble front" hotels of New York, whose coffers have been filled for years past by Southern travel and patronage, were like deserted halls, and, as an instance of their diminished business, our informant tells us that they were actually offering board, with choice rooms, at eight dollars per week, and could get but few guests even at this price.

In Philadelphia and Baltimore our informant found almost the same state of affairs. On the streets could be seen no bustle or stir of business, and everything seemed to be languishing under the effects of the war. A strong sympathy with the South still prevailed in Baltimore, but it was held in check by the soldiery in the city. So strict and odious had become this military rule over the city, that no one dared to avow sympathy with the South. The government of the whole State is now under Black Republican auspices, and the city of Baltimore is held in subjection, as it has been since last May, by the constant menace of 15,000 armed men.

The war feeling was on the increase in the North. The late Federal victories had greatly inspirited the people, and given them a new confidence in their army.—So universal was this confidence that we are told the general opinion in the North was, that the rebellion was already "crushed," and that it only remained to give the finishing blow by taking Richmond. It was confidently believed that this would be done by McClellan in the next three weeks, and public wagers were being offered in New York that the Federals would have Richmond by the 1st of May.

The attention of the whole North was turned to McClellan, and it was thought that the next move would be by him in his "On-to-Richmond." The greatest confidence was felt in the result. His army was said to be in splendid condition, and the people of the North boasted that, by discipline and practice, it had been made the finest army in the world.

But the most interesting item of our information is what our informant learned of the late battle at Winchester. While awaiting there an opportunity to pass through the lines, by eluding the vigilance of the pickets, he overheard a conversation between two officers, one of whom was engaged in the action, in the course of [illegible] loss was 414 killed on the field, and about 800 wounded. When this loss is considered with our own, we can appreciate the desperate courage of our forces, and readily see to which army belongs the "victory."

When our informant left Winchester the Federals occupied it, though the greater portion of their army was a little back of the town. All was quiet, and apparently no prospect of an immediate renewal of the fight.—Richmond Examiner.

RICHMOND, March 3, 1862.

Bids will be received at this office until the 15th day of April next, for the following Ordnance and Ordnance material for the Confederate States army:

200,000 tons charcoal cold blast Pig Iron,
50,000 tons of Blooms, (charcoal,)
50,000 tons Wrought Iron Bars, of various sizes,
100 10-inch Columbiads,
100 8-inch Columbiads,
100 10 inch Siege and Garrison Mortars,
100 13-inch Sea-coast Mortars,
500 12-pounder Iron Howitzers,
500 6-pounder Iron Field Guns.

Bids may be made for any quantity of iron over one hundred tons, and for any number of guns over ten.

Drawings of the guns will be furnished only to parties whose bids are accepted.

Bidders will state the points of delivery, and the date at which not less than one hundred tons of iron may be expected to be furnished.

They must also state the time required to furnish the whole of their bid.

Bidders for guns will state the date of the first delivery, and the time required to supply the whole number.

Payments will be made on delivery of not less than fifty tons of iron, and the right to pay one-half in Confederate bonds is reserved.

Bids must be sealed and enclosed, and endorsed on the envelope "Proposals for Iron," or "Proposals for Guns," as the case may be.

GENERAL ORDER.

HEADQUARTERS, 85TH REGT., N. C. M.,
Charlotte, April 5th, 1862.

The attention of strangers sojourning in the Town of Charlotte, is called to the following order of the Adjutant General:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT N. C.,
ADJUTANT GENERALS OFFICE,
March 31st, 1862.

COLONEL:—You will notify all strangers that, after having been in the county ten days, you will enrol them in your militia, and that they will be liable to the first draft made upon your Regiment.

Yours Respectfully,
J. G. MARTIN,
Adjutant General.

In compliance with the above order all strangers in Beat No. 1, liable to military duty, are hereby notified that after having been in the town of Charlotte ten days, they are required to enrol themselves in Capt. J. H. STEVENS' Company of Militia, and will be required to perform all duties pertaining to members of said Company, and failing to do so will suffer the penalties of the law.

COME TO THE RESCUE!

Captain William Lee Davidson, commanding Company "D," 7th Regiment, (Col. Campbell's,) North Carolina Troops, is anxious to swell the ranks of his company to the maximum number authorized by the Confederate States Congress.

The military character and ability of the 7th Regiment is too well known to need comment. All persons desirous of entering one of the best drilled regiments in the Confederate service, should apply immediately to R. P. Davidson, who is authorized to enlist men for the above company.

The Confederate bounty is deposited at the Branch Bank of N. C., in this place, to be paid recruits immediately after enlisting.
